

Application for the Anti-Ableist Research Fund

Small Grants from the Centre for Global Disability Studies

How to Apply

Submit the following:

- Completed Award Application Coversheet (below)
- Written proposal describing how the award will be spent (including title and description of the project or event, a discussion of cosponsors, and intended impact) (1 page at 1.5 spaced or roughly 375 words)
- One paragraph explaining how the proposed project or event will contribute to the mission of the Centre for Global Disability Studies, the field of disability studies, and/or to anti-ableist research (1.5 spaced, approximately 75-150 words)
- Up to one half page of references or footnotes to clarify works cited in the written proposal and contributions paragraph (Optional)
- A very brief budget justification explaining how you would use the funds (e.g. “3 hours of CART captioning at $50/hr” or “$400 honorarium per panelist x 2 panelists.” If you have quotes or receipts for requested budget items, you can attach those instead. If you have existing grants, please explain how this small grant will supplement or make possible the proposed event or project.
- Current CV for the applicant(s).

Applications should be submitted by email to cgds.utsc@utoronto.ca with SMALL GRANTS APPLICATION in the subject line.

Submit grants by October 1st for fall adjudication, or March 1st for spring adjudication.

At present the CGDS small grants are available only to members of the UofT campus community. Please propose community partnerships directly with an email to cgds.utsc@utoronto.ca.
